Celebrating A Successful AAW And The Holiday Season

Where did November go? It feels like two days ago we were welcoming our Guests to Chicago to celebrate Applicant And Associates Weekend, and here we are, in the final month of the year!

This year's AAW was a whole lotta fun, and I loved the chance to see everyone mix, mingle, and play. The clubhouse was bustling all weekend, with three successful parties, and, like last year, we extended the Sunday brunch party by an extra hour since we all wanted to keep the festivities going.

Hear those sleigh bells, and sling chains, jingling (ring-ting-tingling too)? For those that were able to attend this month's party, Santa Claus came to CHC! Jolly Old St. Nick made another appearance this year, posing for pictures with all the good (and not so good) boys (and Daddies, Sirs, subs, etc). Huge thanks to P&C Creations for donating the beautiful Santa hat and stocking.

I hope you all have a wonderful holiday season, whatever you celebrate, and a joyous new year.

J. Paul Eaton Award

By Mike B.

The J. Paul Eaton Award is given to that person (or persons) who have made outstanding contributions to Inferno over the years, generally behind the scenes. At Inferno 51, Ian T. was awarded the J. Paul Eaton Award. Comments below were delivered by the Inferno 50 winner, Mike B., September 2022.

Spoken by Mike B.

Good evening to all, another year has passed, and here we are at inferno 51. This is the moment I've dreaded, once again being in the spotlight. As many of you know I prefer to shine the spotlight on others. I wish to thank my Sir David Rosen and CHC in helping discover my kink self. When I am with the club, my shields are down and I am where I feel safe, and that I'm where I belong. This time last year I was the one in the audience, not engulfed in the speeches, thinking about what needles David K. is going use on me later, or which hot guy's piss I would get to drink. But then Mikey Miller began to speak about the J. Paul Eaton Award, and then I heard my name. From there it was all a blur. It was a good thing he started with my name instead of clues about me. Otherwise, I would have pulled a Matt McFarland and headed for the nearest exit. Receiving this award has had a great impact. It has given me the knowledge my work has been noticed, and greater self confidence in both myself and my place here with the club.

On to this year. Let me tell you a few things you may or may not know about this year's winner:

1. He loves to cook and is an avid reader.
2. It is said he is great with numbers and balances to the penny.
3. He is an international Member who loves travel by car, "a real road warrior".
4. He was a Member during Inferno who opened his home to the stranded traveler.
5. Self-proclaimed mother hen, and always ready to take notes with pen and paper in hand.
6. Worked Satan's Station many years.
7. Member of the class of '94.
8. A lover of opera, and dresses for the occasion.
9. Attendee of Delta, Boot Camp, and Inferno. As many have figured out by now, it gives me great pleasure to announce the Inferno 51 J. Paul Eaton Award Winner: our tireless, always-there-when-needed, Inferno contributor Ian "Black" Turner.

The Caligula Award

By Andrew I.

The Caligula Award is awarded to that person who has made outstanding contributions to Inferno over the years, generally in a public way. At Inferno 51, David R. was awarded The Caligula Award. Comments below were delivered by the Inferno 50 winner, Andrew I., September 2022.

Thanks.

My main feeling upon receiving the award last year was an overwhelming sense of gratitude.

Inferno has felt like home for me for 20 years and continues to be a place I can be my authentic self. I hope we can continue to provide an oasis of space for kinksters of every stripe for years to come.

Covid and the cancellation of Inferno 49 were hard on everyone, and to get the affirmation at the end of Inferno last year was exceptionally powerful.

I'd like to thank all of my friends and Brothers over the years for being there and supporting me. They are too numerous to mention individually, but thank you one and all. I do want to call out thanks to Trooper, my partner-in-crime, and someone who always has my back.

I'd also like to mention Inferno is built upon those who have come before us, and we wouldn't be here without them. I hope I and the Club will make them proud going forward.

On to something that will make us all smile:

New award winner.

Avid world traveler who appreciates food and alcohol, especially sangria.

Advocate for all of our Brothers, including those who are struggling or are bringing unique kinks to the club.

Definitely a people person, exceptionally positive. One brother said a phone call with him was all that was needed to turn their day around.

His boy says of him "he'll never use two words when twenty will do".

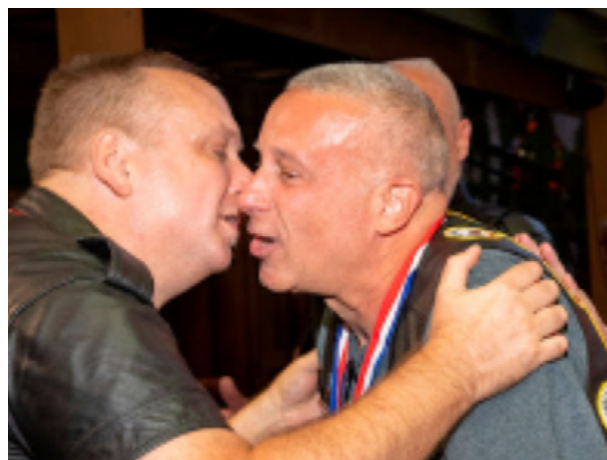

Fan of Broadway and cinemas, even enjoys watching tennis.

Often the first contact newbies have with the Club and is always welcoming and engaging. Some might call him the CHC cheerleader.

Long time eager participant in the piss tent. Increasingly a fan of knife play.

Walk over and give it him.

The Caligula Award Winner for Inferno 51 is David M. Rosen of Chicago.
